

McKillop Library

Social Media Statement

The social media messaging of McKillop Library is guided by the library's mission to promote its distinctive collections, services, facilities, and programming to students, faculty, and staff of Salve Regina University, with a focus on the following:

- Foster connections with the Salve community by encouraging exploration of library resources and spaces
- Showcase library collections and services
- Promote library programming, displays, and exhibits

McKillop Library will follow guidelines established by the Social Media Policy of Salve Regina University.