Process for publishing student submissions to Digital commons

For all collections under the community "Student Work" the following criteria must be met before publication.

1. Student must receive approval via faculty advisor.
2. Dawn must review for potential copyright violations.

These criterion do not apply to faculty submissions, doctoral dissertation submissions or to affiliated entities such as the Pell Center.

Master's students should also have faculty approval.